
Stackable module from Tekmedia optical line

These unit are suitable for forward path analog optical link. Same performances as die-cast version. Useful in modular unit stack array, for relevant optical node systems.

Flexible design that allow us to change panel optical connectors to SC-APC or E2k-APC under customer's specifications.

Also alarm remotization is possible for redundancy and automatic back-up operations.

Click here for more information